DRY AGENTS DISGUISED AS STUDENTS GOT RAID EVIDENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 26, 1927___

Youths Supposedly University Law Class Members Employed in Champaign Liquor Crusade. By the Associated Press. CHAMPAIGN, Ill., May 26.-Two amiable youths posing as university law students and living at College Hall were the "feelers" of Wednesday's series of liquor raids by 25 Federal agents under John

B. Madden, Prohibition Director from Springfield. Sidney S. Kennedy, 21 years old. of Indianapolis, and Elriott Ness, 25, of Chicago, passed two weeks in Champaign, apparently poring over their legal tomes, but really engaged in the solemn business of getting evidence. The youths, the youngest agents in the force of E.

. Yellowley of Chicago, Prchibition Administrator, had an automobile and it was their custom to interest their "fellow students" in the frequent idea of drinking bouts. They were frequently introduced to saloon keepers or were able to testify that liquor had been bought for them by the other students. They took their leave of College Hall last Saturday. When the raids came, evidence and dates of purchases were complete and the raids were executed without a

At the arraignment before Jnited States Commissioner Williams, at Danville, the two agents testified against all those arrested. Sixteen persons were arrested. The raids were said to have been made at the instance of Thomas Clarke, dean of men, at the university.

ENGINEERS' CLUB PRESIDENT Hawes Praises Profession, Declaring No Public Enterprise Succeeds Without Its Aid.

W. W. Horner, chief engineer of paving and sewers of the city of St. Louis and a widely recognized authority in his work, was elected resident of the Engineers' Club of St. Louis last night, at a dinner at the new clubhouse, 4359 Lindell boulevard, the first given there. Other officers chosen were: A. S. Hawks, first vice president; F. C. Woerman, second vice president; W. E. McCourt, third vice president; C. W. S. Sammelman, secretary, and W. O. Pannell, treasurer. Directors elected were J. L. Hamilton J. D. Robertson, retiring president; J. L. Woodress, A. H. Baum and R. J. Russell.

Senator Hawes addressed the neeting, saying no public enterprise was ever carried out without ounsel of engineers. Philip N. Moore, a mining engineer spoke about the history of American en-ture peace of Europe would be in-jured by severance of relations with Russia. He understood the Gov-ernment position now to be that Russia was in the dock.

"We accept that position," he declared, "but we demand that in this matter she must not be condemned without trial. We refuse to admit either the guilt or the innocence of Russia."

Clynes asserted that the Government was giving the communists one of the finest world advertisements.

"This policy will not defeat propaganda," he said. "It will strengthen propaganda and make the astute propagandists even more free to carry on their work and perhaps with greater effect." Clynes said Russian agents had far freer access to America for business purposes than Russian change of friends and through greater common sense. America stood very much higher in the Russian peoplé's regard. He had asked the Premier Tuescday to on which the Government relied and he had secured today's white paper, which he described as a bright, diverting comic publication" for which he did not think any Government in the world would have become responsible.

Lloyd George Takes the Floor. Former Premier Lloyd George, in whose administration the trade igreement with Russia was negotiated, entering the debate said there were three questions that must be considered: 1. Whether there was break if such a break was desirable. 2. Whether it was desirable that strong action be taken at this stage, and 3. Whether the Government had not gone too far even if the desirability of strong action was

Regarding the first point, he thought the evidence sufficient and that he must frankly admit that the soviet Government had not kept

ON BAIL; RETURN TO EAST ST. LOUIS

Home From Leavenworth Prison by Way of Springfield, Ill., Jail-"Mighty Good to Be Out."

The three Shelton brothers, Williamson County feudists, recently granted a new trial on charges of participating in the $15,-000 Collinsville mail robbery Jan. 27, 1925, returned to their homes in East St. Louis today from Springfield, Ill., where they gave bond of $25,000 each last night. Breathing the air of freedom for the first time since he was arrested Nov. 10 last, Bernie Shelton, youngest of the three, was in a happy mood. His brothers, Carl and Earl, fatigued by the automobile trip 'from Springfield, were asleep when a Post-Dispatch reporter called at the Shelton home "It seems mighty good to be a free man once more," Bernie said. We felt all the time we would be eleased as we knew we'd been framed, but we didn't expect it quite so soon," he added. "Prison life wasn't so bad. Carl and I bunked in a cell together and we were all employed as stone masons, so we saw a great deal of each other." Wonders How Birger Feels Now. Diverging from his own status at present to the predicament of his bitter enemies—Charley Birger, Art Newman and other members of the Birger gang—Bernie said: "It looks like Mr. Birger and Mr. Newman are in bad. I wonder how they feel As is known. Birger is in Frank in County jail at Benton awaiting rial for the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City, and Newman is under arrest in California on the same charge. Another Birger lieutenant, Connie Ritter, is being sought for the murder. Adams was a close friend of the Shelton brothers and it was in his home that Carl and Bernie were arrested last November by Postoffice Inspectors. Earl was arrested later in East St. Louis and, with Bernie, remained in jail until the trial at Quincy, at which the three were convicted and sentenced to 25-year terms in Federal Prison at Leavenworth, Kan. SUPPLY YOUR SUMMER Paid From 19 to 25 Per Cent Interest to Finance CHIFFON NEEDS Sales, He Tells Referee in Bankruptcy.

> "Purity" Jones, laundry machinery man, who failed last January with a net loss of about $1,900,000 banks, finance corporations and aundrymen customers, was before deferee in Bankruptcy Coles yeserday endeavoring to explain how happened. He sald the matter was very emplicated and told Attorney Jaob Lashly, representing Trustee Orville Livingston: "You don't un-derstand it either." In general, Jones laid his downfall to the methods of finance used by the David Jones Co.

In his efforts to build up a milon dollar business on a shoestring Jones was obliged to do business with struggling laundrymen, on long term credits at interest rates which he admitted "made ruin inevitable." He said he paid from 19 to 25 per cent interest to finance sales and for every dollar of machinery and supplies he sold, collected only about 76 cents.

No mention was made during the interrogation of Jones of his maneuvers with customers' motes and mortgages which are under Federal investigation, Jones' questioners stayed strictly to the point of polite inquiries about business policies and to these Jones replied with much good humor.

Got $9840 on a $12,000 Deal. Jones cited one specific deal which illustrated how he involved himself in credit operations on terms which gave him little chance for profit. He sold $12,000 worth of machinery and turned notes made by the customer for this amount to the account of the Lloyd Realty & Insurance Co., which handled the paper of the David Jones Co. The Lloyd company sold the notes to a finance corporation for $9840 and this was all Jones stood to realize on a $12,000 deal. He said the finance corporation required a 10 to 20 per cent reserve on paper, charged eight per cent for financing fees and six per cent

After the finance corporation had taken out its 12 per cent and its 20 per cent reserve and the Lloyd company its commission for making the deal Jones ad about 76 per cent return on which to do business. Theoretically, Jones said, the finance corporation was to return the reserve of 20 per cent to the David Jones Co. when the customer had paid his last note. But in case the customer defaulted, as frequently happened, the finance corporation kept the reserve and made Jones pay 100 per cent. "You couldn't hope to succeed on that basis," Attorney Lashly remarked. "Ruin was inevitable" Jones smilingly agreed.

Jones did business on long term accounts, some running as long as five years, he said. This policy got him to the point just before the $1.754,000 to banks and finance Unruffled Throughout Referee Coles from time to time nterjected terse remarks calculat ed to ruffle the bankrupt, Jones remained urbane. He joined in the laughter when at one point Coles said: "Mr. Jones didn't over-look anything." Jones insisted that his company was solvent until credfors filed an involuntary petition n bankruptcy, and spoke, regretfully, of a deal to capitalize his eaterprise for $3,000,000 in Delaware. The deal fell through, but Jones added that had it succeeded his troubles would have been over.

Four small laundries, whose owners trusted Jones with that notes, have gone to the wall since his crash. Laundrymen have said they gave him notes to replace other notes and found both sets of notes standing against them on the 'day of reckoning, but no questions concerning these deals were aske! yesterday. Jones might have stood on his constitutional rights, as he is under a Federal warrant charging use of the mails to defraud. The hearing was continued until June 9.

VETERAN LEARNS COMRADE HE OWED FOR PIPE IS DEAD

NEW YORK, May 26.—John Whitley, wounded British veteran f the battle of Ypres, sailed for home yesterday on the Mauretania.

smoking a pipe he will never be able to pay for. Six months agd,
Whitley came to America with two purposes—to study American business methods and to find the American who sold him the pipe on credit for 5 shillings just before

The trail wandered over much of the United States, but it ended abruptly yesterday at a grave in St Louis. A short time before the Mauretania sailed, Whitley was in-formed that the seller of the pipe, Lieut, Randolph Boyle, was buried in St. Louis in 1923, having succumbed to tuberculosis caused by gassing in France.

Hoover, Outlining Plan, Says No Time Will Be Wasted in Making It Ef-

w the Associated Press.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 25.—The Red Cross and other relief agencies will turn immediately to the task of reconstruction of homes and farms of 500,000 refugees in the Mississip-Valley flood areas, Secretary of Commerce Hoover announced here last night. Work will begin as soon as the refugee camps are closed.

"The reconstruction will be given on the basis of need, not loss, and no time will be wasted in its opera-tion," said Hoover. The Secretary and three State reconstruction directors, H. C. Couch of Arkansas, W. H. Sullivan of Louislana, and L. O. Crosby-of Mississippi organized the machine at a conference at Little Rock, through which the South will endeavor to restore normal conditions in the inundated region Rouge, La. He will go to New Ornight deliver a radio address there, ington. He plans to spend two or three days in Washington and then return to the flood region.

Pretzeleers are pantry pirates

Bong! Bong! And ten more bongs. The witching hour, by gum. Whisht!

Here we see an eating likeness of a couple of bold pretzeleers out for a little pantry piracy before they go to bed. This gives Father a chance to take a little more nourishment, and also to bite out his next morning's breakfast order:

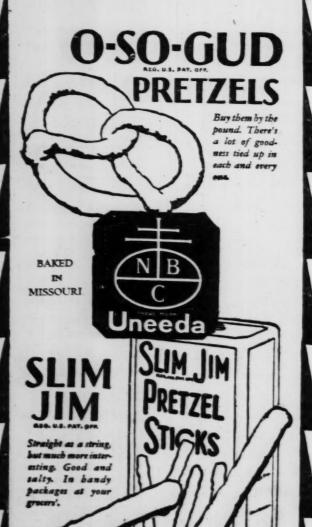

Which, as any good pretzeleer knows, stands for ham and eggs.

Night biting isn't at all unusual in the homes of those who pretzel. O-So-Guds are so tasty and so easy to digest that they are a favorite midnight lunch.

No wonder. These pretzels, baked by Uneeda Bakers, are brittle, and crispy, and runchy, and salty. They're just as good between meals as they are with soup, or salad, or sardines, or cheese, or with iced drinks.

Children love them, and rightly too. They are good for children.

Harry Jones, 54 years old, for 2 years secretary-treasurer of the international Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, was acquitted of a charge of embezzlement in a sealed verdict returned by a jury in Circuit Judge Ossing's Court today.

The jury, which got the case at n m. vesterday, deliberated unil 4 a. m. today, when the members agreed on the verdict and went home to sleep. In court today members of the jury said most of the night was passed in persuading three men who had stood for conviction to change their po-

Jones was specifically charged with the embezzlement of $500, al-though auditors had reported discrepancies in his books aggregating $27,000. Disposition of two emaining indictments has not been

The jury had deliberated an hour and a half yesterday when Judge Ossing called them in at 5:30 p. m. and ordered the sealed verdict. Besides two character witnesses, Jones was the only witness for himself, maintaining consistently that all the irregular items in his books were entered to disguise and conceal expenditures in strike promotion work.

He declared that Paul J. Morin, international president of the union, had instructed him to make irregular entries and that as much as $40,000 or $50,000 had been recorded as paid out for purposes other than the ones for which the ney was spent.

As to the specific item of $500. on which he was tried, Jones de-clared he had advanced that sum Morin on an occasion when Morin left abruptly for New York where there was a strike. To remburse himself, he said, he issued check of the association to pay personal loan he had made. Of an item of $744, used to buy him an automobile and charged off to "aluminum card cases," Jones said the executive board-Morin, Vice President William Mc-Cain and himself-had voted to buy him an automobile and disguise the transaction. Morin, he declared, obtained a much higherpriced machine in the same man-

Says Union Owed Him Money. Asked about a payment of $170 nace, Jones explained that the union owed him the money for ex-penses in strike work and he settled his account by paying the bill from union funds.

In rebuttal, the State examined Morin who denied he had received any secret advances from Jones and declared all strike expenses were shown as such on the records. His automobile was bought, he said, after an iron workers' con vention had voted to approve the gift, and Jones had no authority to purchase a machine. Check stubs were introduced to show that Morin's machine was openly pur-chased from an automobile agency.

Jones, on the stand, related that he became an ironworker in 1893 and a union officer in 1908. He became secretary of the International in 1913 and continued in that office until 1925 when he was 1920 when the offices were moved here. His home is at 308 Forest avenue, Webster Groves.

$900,000,000 SPENT IN 1926 FOR RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS Figures Submitted to Association Disclose $136,895,000 Increase

Over 1925.

By the Associated Press.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 26. Railroads of the United States in 1926 spent nearly $900,000,000 for new equipment, additions and bet-terments to property, it was an-nounced in reports received by the Bureau of Railway Economics and submitted today at a meeting of the board of directors of the American Railway Association.

The exact amount expended last year, the report showed was $885,-086,000, an increase of $136,895,000 over 1925, and of $10.343,000 over 1924. It was, however, approxi-mately $174,000,000 less than the amount spent in 1923.

of the money 1926 expenditures, $513,164,000 went for roadway and structures and $371,922,000 for new equipment. Track and ballast, heavier rail, additions to shops and enginehouses, machinery and tools are included under "roadway and structure" expenditures, and the amount spent for these items, the report stated, was greater last year than during any one year on

Spaniard to Meet Negro at Polo Grounds on June 29, Promoter Humbert Fugazy Announces.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Pauline Uzcudun, the Spanish heavyweight, and Harry Wills, giant Negro, have been matched for a 15-round bout at the Pole Grounds, June 29, Promoter Humbert Fugazy announced to-Paulino and Wills both signed for the fight a month ago, Fugazy said, explaining that he kept the match under cover pending the outcome of the Maloney-Sharkey heavyweight elimination contest and also ex Rickards efforts to match Paulino with Jack Delaney. The boxing commission has put the ban on the latter contest Rickard had Paulino signed for series of matches under his diection and may seek to block Fugasy's plan. By Jack Alexander.

Only a few hundred yards away from the mutuel machines in actual distance but hundreds of miles apart in atmosphere, is the more restful and picturesque side of horse racing, that of long rows of low stables, where men and beasts live side by side amid fresh odors that grip the senses like circus sawdust or printer's ink.

Here is found the Blue Grass side of the game, different enough from cheap colored pasteboards, touts and the generally disreputable crowd of properties among which the idle respectable love to wander to make an observer believe that it the main purpose of ornate track layouts and not gambling.

In the Money-Changers' Temple. Today at Fairmount, where the spring meeting will open Saturday, the only activity among the ticket buying and selling booths, which rival the stables in extensiveness, is supplied by stray painters and carpenters, retouching the "$2 place" and "$6 combination" signs and patching up the little destructive work which a hard winter has been able to effect. The great gold balls on the entrance grouped out of a familiar position. glisten in the warm sunlight which invades the glass-enclosed judges' stand to bound off the shiny scales, back under the cool grandstand.

The stables are a good walk from the grandstand. Here is a city transplanted from Kentucky, orderly as a military camp, alive with easy motion and redolent of horses, hay, acrid soap and disinfectants. Blazed faces poke in-quisitively out of stable doors to eye visitors while trainers curry and brush smooth coats until they shine. Except as noted, the figures are taken from an exhibit for the company submitted to the Public Service Commission and were the basis of testimony in the company's behalf by 15 or that $34,624,589 had been spent up to 1919, and $6,581,362 additional up to Jan. 1, 1927, for cars, tracks, buildings, power houses-every stick of its property and equipment, as determined by an inventory and priced as its books disclose or upon prevailing prices at the time each item was installed.

ORIGINAL COST OF LAND

Eleven appraisers testified for the company that the present market value of its land is $5 .-720.218. However, most of the land was bought 25 or more years ago. Real estate men, consulted by the Post-Dispatch, agree that the original costs likely were no more than one-third of today's market value or $1,906,739.

(Total Original Cost of Land and Equipment Alone, $43,113,690)

OVERHEAD COST DURING CONSTRUCTION $13,347,325 An estimated expenditure for legal costs, engineering damages and injuries, taxes, interest and omissions and contingencies during construction of the property.

FRANCHISE FEES..... The Commission allowed this item as the sum paid by the company to the city for franchises.

WORKING CAPITAL 2,428,973 Although the company does a cash business (pay as you enter), it asserts that this sum is constantly invested in materials or supplies or in cash for the conduct of its business.

PROMOTION COST 2,090,000 This is an estimate of a proper allowance to the promoters for services in combining the independent lines into one system in 1899.

COST OF FINANCING 4,180,000 Another estimate of expenditures in the days of consolidation and the building of the properties for items such as interest on money idle during the construction period. ADD FOR GOING VALUE 8,700,000 Defined by one of the company witnesses as the difference in actual value between a property erected with no business attached and the same property conducting daily transportation in a city like St. Louis.

INCREASE IN COST OF EQUIPMENT IF BOUGHT TODAY$35,063,479 This arbitrary sum is added because the company estimated the same equipment would cost that much more than originally if bought today. INCREASE IN COST OF LAND IF BOUGHT

TODAY 3,813,479 Difference between original cost of land as arrived at above, $1,906,739, its market value of today $5,720,218.

TOTAL$112,945,468

DEDUCTION FOR DEPRECIATION 14,372,204

The property is not as good as new, however. It has been subject to wear and tear; it is an old property and in its decision of 1923 the commission deducted 30 per cent to reflect its deteriorated condition. The company asserts, however, that, by inspection, it was found that only 16 per cent depreciation has taken place. The company's estimate of "reproduction cost new" of the equipment-all its property except land-is arrived at by adding the items (1) "Original cost of equipment," $41,206,951, (2) "Overhead costs during construction," $13,347,325, (3) "Franchise fees," $208,522 and (4) "Increase in cost of equipment if bought today," $35,063,479. The sum of these is $89,826,277, of which 16 per cent is $14,372,204.

cent-$7,880,000 a year above all operating expenses-is more than double the original value of the company's physical property, alone, $43,113,690. As is known the company is basing its claim, as did Charles

A. Munroe, who made a profit of more than $4,000,000 in buying and selling Laclede Gas Light Co., upon Supreme Court decisions giving weight to the reproduction cost theory of valuation. Although the demand upon the Commission is being made in the name of the United Railways and its receiver, the receivership shortly will be terminated and the parties really at interest are J. K. Newman, New York promoter; F. O. Watts, president of the First National Bank; A. L. Shapleigh, J. Sheppard Smith and other St. Louisans and nonresidents, associated in the enterprise of transforming the bankrupt railways company into the St. Louis Public Service Co., a transaction in which they stand to make several millions of profit, as the Post-Dispatch has

But while the demand for a $98,500,000 valuation was pressed last week with all the force of sincerity and determination and while the company would be delighted to obtain such a valuation or anything approaching it, it is well known that the formal demand is a gesture in support of Newman's bold threat, uttered in the Post-Dispatch on April 1. that he would go to Federal Court and get as high a valuation as he could unless the city yielded to his demand for a 30-year franchise to earn 7 per cent on $60,000,000.

As the Post-Dispatch has pointed out, the eagerness of the reorganizers to agree to a $60,000,000 valuation and 7 per cent return if given a 30-year franchise is due to the fact that the franchise would insure the maximum of profit in the reorganization whereas procedure under Public Service Commission rule, without a new franchise, would decrease or defer the profits.

The reason for this as given to brokers and investment bankers by Stanley Clarke, counsel for the reorganizers on May 13, is that in 7 years the new company will be called upon to pay or refund $30,300,000 of bonds and this re-financing would be simplified by a new franchise.

But, regardless of all questions of franchise, finance cr profits, as car riders have been informed by the Post-Dispatch, the cars will continue to run. The present franchises of the railways do not expire at least until 1939, or 12 years hence, and some contend they extend to 1948, or 21 years more. The new owners can continue to operate the system with a fair return upon their investment under Commission regulation.

Long before the $30,300,000 of bonds become due or the franchises expire, the city and car riders will have made up their minds what to do about rapid transit and will have determined what part of the present surface lines will be useful in a complete transporta-

Premier Mussolini of Italy sent the largest representation ever to come from his nation. He sent Under-Secretary of State Bottal to assist Edmundo Rossoni, leader of the Fascist syndicates, to obtain recognition as the representative of Italian labor. If their effort does not succeed, it is believed that Italy will quit the Labor office and the League of Nations.

The fight against Rossonl, which has featured every Labor conference since Mussolini's march on Rome, is directed by representatives of the Amsterdam Interna-tionale. The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

THE WHITNEY CASE.

From the New Republic. HE California syndicalism law was one of the worst fruits of wartime hysteria. It made any individual member of an organization responsible for acts committed, or words said, by other members, which constitutes a startling advance in the theory of joint responsibility. It treated certain criminal acts, already punishable under existing statutes, in a special way because of the character of the purpose which was alleged to lie behind them only in a technical sense. The statute holds sabotage or unlawful acts of force and violence, or unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing a change in insentenced under Section IV, which declares every person guilty of a felony who "organizes or assists in organizing, or is or knowingly becomes a member of any organization, society, group or assemblage of persons organized or assembled to advocate. teach or aid and abet criminal syndicalism."

Miss Whitney assisted in organizing the California Branch of the Communist Labor party. As chairman of the platform committee, and being a person rigidly opposed under all circumstances to any and forms of violence, she introduced a platform of a most pacific character. It was rejected by the convention as too mild, and the platform of the National Communist Labor party was substituted in toto. This platform has been held by the United States Department of Labor not to advocate violent revolution. It did, however, speak approvingly of the L. W. W., an organization which was anathema to California just then. Miss Whitney's crime consisted. would therefore appear, in remaining a member of the organization and trying to convert it to her own doctrins of non-violence! In California, as in practically every other state which passed a criminal syndicalism law, the statute has now become a war hysteria against the "Reds," juries refuse to bring in verdicts of guilty in such cases. We take it for granted, therefore, They deserve commendation for the decision taken that the awakened conscience of California will make itself felt, and that Miss Whitney will be spared the necessity of sarving any part of her thoroughly undeserved prison

THE AMERICAN WAY.

From the Oklahoman.

THAT brand of Americanism that is really 100 per cent appeared in the unanimous decision of organized farmers of Pulaski County. Ark., when they agreed to pool their surplus corn and soy beans and donate that surplus to flood sufferers of their section. The extent of the floods has made the problem of obtaining seed for planting purposes a serious one. The scarcity of seed naturally increases the price of that which is available, and by holding their surplus Pulaski farmers could have reaped a handsome profit. But their sympathy for those in trouble triumphed over all mercenary motives and they decided to give away what would have brought them an inflated price. At the very time these farmers were giving away the fruits of their last year's industry, captious critics were announcing to the world that money is the American god It is no such thing. Americans are quick to make the most of their financial opportunities, and love the comforts and conveniences that money brings them, but in the hour of calamity no people on earth part with their money more freely than the peo ple of America. The Pulaski County example is just one of uncounted thousands

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

Aged 6 months

-an exclusive, secret process

Clicquot Club is aged like a rare wine.

Only master hands, guided by the skill and experience of many years, can weave its choice flavorings, from the world's best markets, into this unusual product.

Only aging under expert care can give these ingredients, whose quality is higher than the highest government standards, a chance to develop a distinctive flavor. As in well-ripened wines, the bouquet and aroma depend upon aging-upon proper protection from air and light.

Like liquid diamonds, the pure, clear water of the Clicquot spring finds its way into the New England sunlight to become a perfect medium for man's skill in the blending of Clicquot Club Ginger Ale. In all the world there is only one Clicquot spring and only Clicquot Club can offer this heritage of

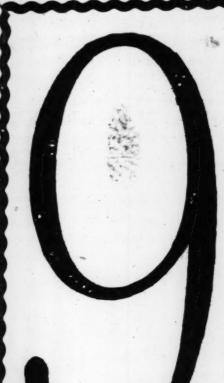

It is the result of forty years of skillful working with a natural water which scientists say is peculiarly adapted to the production of a high quality ginger ale. The water of the Clicquot spring combines perfectly with the pure fruit flavors used in its making.

Every time you open a bottle of Clicquot Club—the glowing Golden or the dainty Pale Dry—the combination of Nature's bounty and man's devotion to an ideal offers a refreshing delight.

Forest Withers, a former convict, under indictment at Louisville, Ky., for a $100,000 diamond robbery, eluded arrest at the Saline County courthouse here yesterday, a few minutes after City Judge Choisser had ordered his release on habeas corpus proceedings. Sheriff Turner was waiting outside the courthouse to rearrest Withers when he jumped from a window and fled.
Withers was arrested Saturday at Eldorado by a private detective and authorities assert he was sub-sequently identified by Sam Newman, jewelry salesman from New York, as the man who robbed him of uncut diamonds in Louisville May 17. The release of Withers was ordered because no warrant had been received. Sheriff Turner planned to take him into custody again in an effort to detain him until arrival of Louisville police.

Cross, in too-few hours, the prairies, the Rockies, the mysterious, enchanted desert, and come to Southern California. plan to rent one here. Five thousand miles of paved boulevard, and thousands of miles of excellent secondary highway, will carry you on wings to haunts of romance, history and interest. Every mile will be fascinating. Over 180,000 guideposts will point the way.

Bring your light overcoat. You'll need it at evening. Prepare to sleep under blankets. But forget your umbrella. Nobody knows what an umbrella is for, in Southern California in summertime. Fear no rain, no humidity, no prostration, no sunstroke. Fifty years' carefully kept government weather records for Los Angeles show, as a yearly average, the annual mean summer temperature to be but 69 degrees.

And the beaches! Two hundred seventy-one miles of scintillating Riviera beside an opalescent sea! With magnificent fishing for great 500 and 600-pound bass, for famous leaping tuna, fighting swordfish, gamey yellowtail! Yachting and motorboating out of perfect coves, harbors, inlets, and things of interest—everything you islands off in sunset. Gay tent want to know. Send for it. Your cities; lively amusement parks; copy's free.

A Trip Abroad in Your Own United States!

See, too, the amazing development by which man has transformed the desert into garden, orchard, happy villa home and brilliant, cosmopolitan city. See the varied industry of Los Angeles County, richest of this country's agricultural communities. See the great ships bound for Panama Prepare for a glorious time. Old Mexico and South and Cen-Ship your car ahead, drive it, or tral America, for Hawaii and the Orient. See astonishing oil fields; Old Spanish Missions; Hollywood; groves of oranges, lemons, walnuts and figs at the desert's edge; milehigh mountains, threaded with bridle trails, motor highways, trolley lines. Drink in the fascinating color of the Pilgrimage Play, the outdoor harmonies of the great Hollywood Bowl. See and enjoy this land of enchanted living. Return to your year's work refreshed, invigorated, with a viewpoint enlarged by fascinating travel.

Railroads are offering very low round trip rates, good until October 31st. Come direct to Los Angeles. Visit San Diego, Riverside, Orange, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara and all Southern California. now scouted by police. They say the youth, employed in Detroit, as an electrical worker, was of good character and had no enemies. It is their belief that he tied the wire around his hands as it was loosely drawn. They point out that he might have been able to draw the rope about his neck tight enough to cause strangulation. Beyer defaulted in payments on a wrist watch he gave his flancee last Christmas and quarreled with her when she declined to return the present until he was able to pay for it. The jewelry company from which he made the purchase garnished his wages when he re-turned to work two months ago, after being laid off during February. His landlady told police he had been despondent and had complained of the "bad breaks" he was getting.

The youth went to Detroit from ville grade school and attended high school for one year, after which he went to work in a foundry. His father is a foundry worker. Besides his parents, he is sur-vived by four sisters and three

Have Your Brakes Checked Before You Start-Without Fail!

EMEMBER the smashed cars you saw along the road last Decoration Day? Remember how many times you barely escaped being caught in accidents yourself? Every holiday with its jammed roads and strange driving conditions takes its toll of lives and costly accidents—most of which are caused by drivers who cannot stop their cars quick enough? Don't spoil your holiday with an accident to your car—costing possibly a life or serious injury because of faulty brakes. You will need all of the brake power your car can deliver. Play safe this grar—make sure of your brakes before you start—a test requires but a few minutes and it may save your life. Have your brakes checked before you start.

Just a few minutes time is all you need to have brakes you can depend upon. Just drive in—a report on the necessary work in five minutes. Ten to twenty minutes for adjustments and minor repairs—an hour or less for the average complete reline. Quickest service in the city—and every job DONE RIGHT!

For Your Convenience Our Plant Will Be

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post Dispatch. NEW YORK, May 26.—Capt. Lindbergh, who speaks of himself and the Ryan monoplane in which he flew from New York to Paris as "we," will share the official onors to be showered upon him when he arrives here next month with the aerial steed that carried him to fame. For the first time in history an airplane will be in the traditional triumphal procession by which returning heroes are led from the Battery to City Hall. Grover A. Whalen, chairman of ception of distinguished guests in outlining the plans yesterday, said that the plane, Spirit of St. Louis, is to have second place of honor in the parade. The pilot will ride in a flag-decorated automobile. The plane will follow on a truck nilarly bedecked.

Flyers to Join in Welcome. Whalen will endeavor to bring together for the welcome as many of the war-time flyers of France and America as possible. Many of these will not be on the city's of-ficial repection boat, the Macom, but will be wheeling aloft in the element they know so well. MODISH MITZI

Are Fashionable

By Jay V. Jay

Polly and Mitzi are dressing for a promenade on deck. For that matter, they might be dressing for golf, tennis or a hike, shipboard fashions aren't so different. Polly wears a little beret and a striped sweater with a round neck, over a sweater with a cardigan neckline. Mitzi is remarking upon the becomingness of the sweaters with round necks. Almost all of them have stripes one way or another, up and wonders of (a) their radios; (b) down, across or diagonal. Isn't it wonderful that sweaters are so popular the very season that they are golf; (d) the number of miles going abroad? The sweater also carries a bow on the shoulder just as blouses and dresses do.

Mitzi and Polly are wearing over their sweaters a large handkerchief or bandanna painted in modernistic style. "Did you notice, Polly, how all the sailors wear those new striped sweaters?" queries Mitzi. But if there he a chance for game playing, and I had pretty good a swell billfold you bought for the men's wrize." At the bridge table a "duck" is the playing of a losing card when holding one which possibly or surely can win the trick; ducking is often essential.

The bridge novice generally feels about his high cards the way trunken sailor is supposed to feel about his money. The sailor is anxious to spend his money, and the Bridge novice—even when playing No Trump—spends his high cards, seeming to fear that they may be lost unless used a the first opportunity. For example, when leading from Ace-King-x-x-x against a No Trump i takes considerable coaching to make the novice appreciate that the King and Ace of the suit should not be led first, as they would be against a suit declaration.

Let us look at a specific case. Suppose that Declarer and Dummy hold the following hands. Closed Hand (South) playing No Trump, and that the Six of Clubs has been led: Dummy-Spades Q-J-4-2

VERCROWDED hospitals for women and an increased infantile death rate have caused the scientists of Europe to look for the cause. They attribute the alarming conditions to the craze for achieving the fashionable American "flapper" figure; an alarming increase of anemia and tuberculosis and the appearance of new and mysterious ailments following in the wake of unwise dleting methods and the demands of a faster rate of living.

And what for? ask the artists and designers of woman's dress. Women are losing their beauty of form. "If I wanted a modern woman," says one artist, "I would get a man-a man for a

SYNOPSIS.

Cornelia Marsh, employed in the scenario department of Hertzog's motion picture studio at Fort Lee, learns with sorrow that Henry Horner, the head of the department, has been fired by Lyman Hertzog, son of the owner of the studio. Everyone knows that Lyman is jealous of Henry because he is in love with Dulcie Jayne, the star of the studio, but Dulcie seems to prefer her director, Daniel K. Leland.

INSTALLMENT XII.

BUT Mr. Horner was saying, "Of course, Dulcie's picked up culture, quite a little, from the films. But it's most ture, quite a little, from the films. But it's mostly clothes and manners and what you might call general. I wouldn't say they give you literary training, exactly. In a literary way she'll have to depend, now, entirely on Leland,"

Leland! That Mr. Horner should thus calmly name the man for whom his golden idol had jumped over his golden fan gave Cornelia sort of shock. Was the boy simply too good to live? Had the heart interest of too many scenarios softened his backbone? Even the last crumbs of the really very gratifying walnuts and icing could not nullify the acid of Cornelia's reply. "And can she depend on him? Is it the important things he knows about? Or those that jays And I can't explain. I simply can't. O! I only want what's right

It's a screen face. Women fall for it. And once you have got the women falling, it makes not much difference if the critics fall the opposite. I don't like us to waste that kind of face, no matter how modern a director it's belonging to."

Lyman burst into a sarcastic laugh. "O, excuse me! I thought of a picture that would make a fortune! Wait! In "Heart of Fire" it was Dulcie Jayne you were exploiting!" He lit a cigarette and, there was a man's part, second only to the star's—yes, a sympathetic leaning against the wall, with an air of insulting the ceiling's placed heavy, that had reminded Cornelia of Leland as she read it. But face, blew smoke at it. "Of course, if you want to exploit a man
